SUMMER JOBS AVAILABLE

AT LOWELL NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK

(Lowell, MA) Lowell National Historical Park is currently offering a number of summer 2002 job opportunities. A Job Fair will be held at the Park Visitor Center, 246 Market Street, Lowell, MA on Thursday, January 3rd, 2002 from 2:00 – 5:00 p.m.

Anyone interested in working for the National Park Service should stop by and learn about the variety of jobs available and pick up an application package. Positions include Park Ranger, Visitor Use Assistant, Laborer, and Lock and Dam Operator.

Lowell National Historical Park preserves and interprets the nationally significant historic and cultural sites, structures and districts in Lowell, Massachusetts, that represent the most significant planned industrial city in the United States and symbolize, in physical form, the Industrial Revolution. The Park tells the story of America's first planned industrial city and the people who make that history come alive.
